Introduction

- 6 Prompted by the arrests of 8 Ministers of the Hamas-led PA government and a further 25 Hamas-affiliated PLC members, in addition to the 12 PLC members who were already in prison, the Near East Consulting team on Thursday night 29 June and Friday morning 30 June conducted a short phone survey in both the West Bank and the Gaza Strip mainly asking the respondents what Abu Mazen should do given the current situation.
- 6 In total, 704 interviews were successfully completed.
- 6 The margin of error for this survey is +/- 3.6 with a 95% confidence level.

Given the current situation in which 8 PA Ministers and 20 PLC members have been arrested in the latest military invasion, what should Abu Mazen do?

- Call for an emergency government
- Dissolve the PA
- Call for international control
- Let the situation take its course
- Hand-over control to Jordan & Egypt

Given the current situation in which 8 PA Ministers and 20 PLC members have been arrested in the latest military invasion, what should Abu Mazen do?

In light of the situation, some people are calling upon Abu Mazen to take full control over the government, do you agree or disagree?
